Abstracts

Government support for SEL implementation, funding from non-profit organizations (NPOs), and K-12 schools' increasing acceptance of digital transformation are driving the SEL market growth. Based on the solution, the SEL assessment tool breakdown is expected to grow at a higher CAGR during the forecast period. This tool helps educators measure the impact of the SEL program on students and make informed decisions accordingly. Suppliers of SEL tools are new to the SEL market. Most stakeholders from preschool to high school have already implemented this tool. It enables education stakeholders to monitor and measure the impact of SEL courses on students.
