Abstracts

Vegetable totes are unfastened bags with parallel handles on the sides, which can either be opened or closed from the top. Vegetable totes provide secondary packaging to vegetables and are generally used for carrying vegetables from retail outlets to households. Vegetable totes can be made of jute or fabric. The ease of printing and labelling on vegetable totes make them suitable for vegetable shopping and convenient for producers as well as consumers. Moreover, vegetable totes are easy to carry and very convenient for short distances.
