Abstracts

Wasabi is different from traditional Chinese mustard. Although both have similar impact and spicy, they come from different plants. Chinese mustard is a spicy seasoning ground from mature seeds of mustard. Green mustard, which originated in Japan, is a sauce ground from the roots of the plant horseradish. It has a bright green color and a strong spicy flavor. Green mustard contains allyl isothiocyanate compounds, which is the source of its unique flavor and pungent taste. It can remove the fishy smell of fish, sterilize, promote digestion and enhance appetite.
