Abstracts

Sun Pharmaceuticals is a multinational company and was established by Mr. Dilip Shanghvi in 1983 offering products to treat psychiatry ailments. Today the company offers formulations in various therapeutic areas, such as cardiology, psychiatry, neurology, gastroenterology. and diabetology.

The company's income has increased from INR 166.33 bn in 2014 to INR 273.28 bn in 2018 registering a CAGR growth of 13.22%. The decline of around 15.13% in company's revenue compared to 2017 was mainly due to a decrease in their U.S sales. The company has shown steady growth in all other markets except the U.S. market.

During the period of 2014-2018, the company's domestic (India) revenue increased from INR 39.41 billion to INR 84.10 billion, registering an average growth rate of 20.86%. Domestic revenues contribute to about 30.77% of the total revenues of the company in 2018.
