Abstracts

The 2022 edition of this Annual Strategy Dossier report analyses the overall strategy focus and provides Insights into the Strategies & Plans being conceptualized & pursued by Airbus Helicopters for the near to medium term horizon with defense spending in a marked upswing phase amid rapidly changing geopolitical situation & environment boosting the demand for military equipment across most parts of the world while the global economy has been striving to make a comeback from the COVID-19 pandemic improving the market prospects for civil helicopters. Airbus Helicopters continues to maintain its traditional dominance & leadership of the global civil helicopter market led by the strong & continued focus on development of new, cutting edge products & technologies as showcased by the development & entry into service of the latest H160 with its robust order backlog and planned production ramp-up over near term.

Continued Russian resurgence and rapid Chinese military ascension have effectively led to a return to great power competition among leading geopolitical powers spearheaded by development of innovative & next generation technologies. The Russian invasion of Ukraine has unleashed a panic wave across the entire Eastern Europe and the looming Chinese threat over the Asia-Pacific region have effectively spiked up defense spending across these regions and most other parts of the globe. The realignment of U.S. defense spending which is now pivoted towards competing with near peer adversaries and maintaining its traditional overmatch over adversaries has accelerated the pace of replacement & modernization of ageing defense equipment with the award of several new defense contract awards over the recent years and many more coming up along with focus on rapid development of game changer technologies. The U.S. defense budget has registered one of its biggest increases for the year 2022 and has reached the $768 billion level providing significant growth opportunities to the industry going forward.

Against this backdrop, the report provides a comprehensive analysis on the company starting with a detailed business and financial snapshot, incorporating charts, tables and analysis based on latest financial statements. An insightful & comprehensive SWOT framework analysis is also provided; which is used extensively for scanning, assessment & analysis of the internal as well as external business environment of an organization as part of strategic planning process. The framework generates a snapshot of the company's inherent strengths & weaknesses as part of the internal environment assessment and outlines potential growth opportunities as well as threats as part of the external environment assessment.

The report also incorporates analysis of key industry trends, issues & challenges and risk factors besides identifying key driving & restraining forces & assessing their potential degree of impact through a force field analysis.
