Abstracts

1. Overview:

The report provides an insightful SWOT Framework Analysis on the Global Business Aviation industry amid the difficult industry conditions & a complex & uncertain global macroeconomic environment. The framework generates a snapshot of the industry's inherent strengths & weaknesses as part of the internal environment assessment and outlines potential growth opportunities as well as threats as part of the external environmental assessment.

2. Backdrop: Global Business Aviation Industry Continues to Make Steady Strides on Recovery Path:

The Global General Aviation Industry registered an encouraging 6.8% growth in shipments and a 24.5% growth in airplane billings which reached $15.4 billion for the 3 quarters of 2013. The Business Jet shipments contracted by 2% for Q1-Q3 2013; standing at 421 units. In terms of OEMs, Bombardier led the industry pack in terms of deliveries while Gulfstream ousted Bombardier from the top spot, in terms, of aircraft billings for YTD. In the business aviation industry, activity levels have remained decent driving growth for the MRO activity.

Overall, the global business jet industry has been trading cautiously on recovery path over the recent years since the global economic meltdown of 2008 amid difficult & uncertain economic conditions prevailing across traditional markets with the ongoing recovery attributable primarily to & spearheaded by new product introductions by all key global OEMs of-late incorporating cutting-edge technologies delivering enhanced performance features & specifications as well as optimized aircraft operating economics aimed at overcoming demand inertia for new aircraft sales emanating from the macro-environmental uncertainty across traditional markets.
