STRATEGIC RATIONALE:

The report brings to forefront & provides key insights as well as an incisive perspective through a comprehensive analysis of the Strategic Initiatives, Developments as well as Focus of these 7 key Global Construction & Mining equipment manufacturing companies(Caterpillar, Komatsu, Volvo, CNH, Hitachi, Sandvik, Terex) against the backdrop of an evolving industry landscape & market situation; marked by a significant decline in demand for equipment in China, the World's most significant market for construction equipment, during the first half of 2012 with the construction activity facing a slowdown as the country tries to establish an equilibrium amongst inflationary pressures and efforts to stoke up economic growth momentum. The North American market & emerging markets in Asia, excluding, China, continue with their growth momentum while European economic issues continue to impact the market sentiments in Western Europe. Almost all key global OEMs, therefore, are in the process of aligning production levels with the demand situation consequently and managing the product as well as market mix strategically amid a difficult, complex, challenging & uncertain Global Macroeconomic Environment.
