Abstracts

Introduction

This report offers an extensive overview of the regulatory obligations at the retail and wholesale level for fixed and mobile in France. It also provides an overview of the national regulatory authority, key legislation and regulations, national broadband strategies, spectrum policy, and universal service.

Features and benefits

This overview provides clients with a detailed understanding of the regulatory environment in the country.

We offer details of the relevant markets regulated and the players designated as dominant in these markets.

Highlights

Despite being one of the largest telecoms market in the Western European region, France has lower mobile and mobile broadband penetration rates in comparison with less developed EU countries such as Portugal and Spain. The report Highlights the regulator's efforts to increase the uptake of these services.
