Abstracts

The legal process outsourcing (LPO) market, often seen as simply a part of the larger knowledge process outsourcing (KPO) industry, is on the verge of a major breakthrough. The last few months have seen a number of landmark deals announced, and vendors are bullish about the prospects for a sustained period of growth. This report aims to examine the reasons behind the rise of LPO, investigate how offshore delivery models are contributing to the rise in demand for LPO services, and provide an overview of the leading vendors in the sector.
