Abstracts

Business Finance agencies offer a broad range of onsite and offsite financial solutions to businesses, including accounting services, bookkeeping services, tax services, and financial consulting. In general, these services can ensure that businesses keep their financial processes efficient, organized, and compliant with governmental regulations. The range of services offered by business finance agencies varies. Larger firms can provide a wide range of solutions and can serve all financial needs of some businesses. Other firms are highly specialized and may only work in niche fields. Businesses of all sizes and industries work with these agencies.

Since the COVID-19 virus outbreak in December 2019, the disease has spread to almost 100 countries around the globe with the World Health Organization declaring it a public health emergency. The global impacts of the coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) are already starting to be felt, and will significantly affect the Business Finance Services market in 2020.

COVID-19 can affect the global economy in three main ways: by directly affecting production and demand, by creating supply chain and market disruption, and by its financial impact on firms and financial markets.

The outbreak of COVID-19 has brought effects on many aspects, like flight cancellations; travel bans and quarantines; restaurants closed; all indoor events restricted; over forty countries state of emergency declared; massive slowing of the supply chain; stock market volatility; falling business confidence, growing panic among the population, and uncertainty about future.
