Abstracts

The business travel luggage is simple and elegant in appearance. Luggage is usually used to hold the necessary travel clothes, personal care products, and souvenirs. For the frequent business traveler, the ideal carry-on suitcase can make all the difference between effortlessly gliding through security and onto the plane and enduring the hassles of modern-day air travel.

Since the COVID-19 virus outbreak in December 2019, the disease has spread to almost 100 countries around the globe with the World Health Organization declaring it a public health emergency. The global impacts of the coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) are already starting to be felt, and will significantly affect the Business Travel Luggage market in 2020.

COVID-19 can affect the global economy in three main ways: by directly affecting production and demand, by creating supply chain and market disruption, and by its financial impact on firms and financial markets.

The outbreak of COVID-19 has brought effects on many aspects, like flight cancellations; travel bans and quarantines; restaurants closed; all indoor events restricted; over forty countries state of emergency declared; massive slowing of the supply chain; stock market volatility; falling business confidence, growing panic among the population, and uncertainty about future.
