Abstracts

Commerce cloud platforms provide an enhanced consumer experience across channels, such as mobile, social media, website, and offline stores. It enables a single shared view of customer activity, inventory, products, and promotions that reduce the time needed to synchronize distinct data sources. Moreover, commerce cloud provides capabilities, such as an open development environment. These capabilities aid retail providers in simplified customizations and extended commerce.

Since the COVID-19 virus outbreak in December 2019, the disease has spread to almost 100 countries around the globe with the World Health Organization declaring it a public health emergency. The global impacts of the coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) are already starting to be felt, and will significantly affect the Commerce Cloud market in 2020.

COVID-19 can affect the global economy in three main ways: by directly affecting production and demand, by creating supply chain and market disruption, and by its financial impact on firms and financial markets.

The outbreak of COVID-19 has brought effects on many aspects, like flight cancellations; travel bans and quarantines; restaurants closed; all indoor events restricted; over forty countries state of emergency declared; massive slowing of the supply chain; stock market volatility; falling business confidence, growing panic among the population, and uncertainty about future.

This report also analyses the impact of Coronavirus COVID-19 on the Commerce Cloud industry.
