Abstracts

A gutter or window cleaning service is the process of having the guttering system of your house or business cleansed and cleaned of general mess and debris. It is highly beneficial to have your gutters cleaned several times a year to keep them in good working order.

According to QYResearch's new survey, global Gutter and Window Cleaning Service market is projected to reach US$ 1818.6 million in 2029, increasing from US$ 1236 million in 2022, with the CAGR of 5.7% during the period of 2023 to 2029. Influencing issues, such as economy environments, COVID-19 and Russia-Ukraine War, have led to great market fluctuations in the past few years and are considered comprehensively in the whole Gutter and Window Cleaning Service market research.

With the gradual increase in the level of urbanization of the country and the rapid increase in the scope of urban development in recent years, the social demand for environmental cleaning and maintenance services is growing, and environmental cleaning and maintenance services have become an essential part of public health, cleaning and maintenance conditions, and are receiving more and more attention from cities. According to our research, the global property cleaning market size in 2022 will be approximately USD 50 billion. Rising industrial standards for quality of property cleaning services, driven by increasing public health awareness, will continue to fuel the growth of the property cleaning industry.
