Abstracts

Tropical fruit puree is a puree made from tropical fruit. Tropical fruit puree is also being considered as an ideal ingredient for the production of infant food products, which provides further scope for the application of avocado puree in infant food.

The demand for tropical fruit puree is growing, and this is prompting big players to set up production in areas such Mexico, Malaysia, and Indonesia. Some of the international companies are also working towards product innovation and taste enhancement for capturing the attention of consumers. Some of the companies operating in the global market include Döhler GmbH, Nestlé S.A., Stonehill Produce, Florigin Limited, Simped Foods Pty Ltd., and The FoodFellas Ltd.

Since the COVID-19 virus outbreak in December 2019, the disease has spread to almost 100 countries around the globe with the World Health Organization declaring it a public health emergency. The global impacts of the coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) are already starting to be felt, and will significantly affect the Tropical Fruit Puree 3900 market in 2020.

COVID-19 can affect the global economy in three main ways: by directly affecting production and demand, by creating supply chain and market disruption, and by its financial impact on firms and financial markets.

The outbreak of COVID-19 has brought effects on many aspects, like flight cancellations; travel bans and quarantines; restaurants closed; all indoor events restricted; over forty countries state of emergency declared; massive slowing of the supply chain; stock market volatility; falling business confidence, growing panic among the population, and uncertainty about future.

This report also analyses the impact of Coronavirus COVID-19 on the Tropical Fruit Puree 3900 industry.
