Abstracts

China Dental Market would be 16.65 Billion by the end of year 2025. Chinese citizens know about oral health and healthy behaviors. 60% of citizens have awareness about oral health; 24% of 5 and above year children and 31% of 12 and above year children clean their teeth twice a day, 40% to 43% of them visit dentists for inhibition of oral infections, discussion, and examine; 36% of grown-ups clean their teeth twice a day, according to the 4th National Oral Health Epidemiological Survey.

As living conditions rises, and increase in disposable income, so does the need for dental services, leading to a burgeoning dental market in China. In 2017, there were around 135 dentists per million citizens in China, and in 2018 this figure rose 12% and reached 150. There is a massive gap in comparison to developed countries, showing immense potentials of the Chinese market. According to our research China Dental Market is expected to reach US$ 16.6 Billion by the end of year 2025.

In the year 2015, there had been 50% of patient's volume in stomatological general hospitals in China. It is predicted that by 2025, the numbers would increase drastically. Stand-alone dental clinics have 20% patient volume and specialized dental clinics have 30% patient volume. The chain hospitals have high potentials in the expansion of dental institutions. China dental care institutions include Arrail Dental Group, Jiamei Dental Group, Bybo Dental Group, iByer Dental Group, TC Medical, ChengDu Huamei Dental Chain Co., Ltd., Straumann. The profitable dental care market has attracted the peoples due to the perfect cure of oral infections, and thus, more patients are coming forward for oral treatment and therefore paying high cost seemingly.
