Abstracts

United Arab Emirates (UAE) outbound tourism market has observed a significant increase in recent years with a small population base. Due to increasing globalization; UAE outbound tourism is playing an important role in shaping the global outbound tourism market. UAE Outbound Tourism Market is growing rapidly. Outbound tourism includes the traveling activities of residents from one country to another. The Emiratis generally travel to its nearby Gulf countries like Saudi Arabia, Qatar. Other than the Gulf countries Emiratis also like to travel to the United States, United Kingdom, France, Germany, Switzerland, Australia and the Asian countries like India, Malaysia, and Thailand. As per the UAE government survey held in 2015, the number of outbound trips has reached 3.5 million from UAE, of which the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia accounts for nearly 40 percent of the travelers. United Arab Emirates Outbound Tourism Market is predicted to surpass US$ 24 Billion by the year 2025.

The United Arab Emirates (UAE) has emerged as an important source of outbound tourism market over the years and is expected to grow immensely on the account of many factors including a rise in disposable income, passion to explore the world and increasingly efficient flight connectivity to different parts of the world. In addition, the citizens of the United Arab Emirates also choose to travel across the world to learn about different cultures. These heritage travelers usually visit historic and cultural-significant sites to meet with the locals of the respective countries and learn about their traditions and ways of life.
