Contents

1 Overview of machine tool industry

- 1.1 Global machine tool industry grow steadily and China machine tool industry is of great potentials in growth
- 1.2 China machine tool industry ranks first in the world in consumption
- 1.3 Export takes a larger proportion in production but needs to be further explored
- 1.4 Developing trend of machine tool industry

2 Status quo of China machine tool industry

- 2.1 Development sees a good momentum
- 2.2 Machine tool exports keep a rapid growth

3 Understanding of China on machine tool industry and inspiration from the global powerful machine tool countries

- 3.1 Machine tool industry is the basis of economic safety and national defense security
- 3.2 Decision makers push machine tool industry to go on a right track after wrong decisions
- 3.3 Inspiration from global powerful machine tool countries

4 Advantages of China machine tool industry

- 4.1 Supports of new policies
- 4.2 China is in the middle period of heavy chemical industry, which is the best time for the development of machine tool industry
- 4.3 Technical innovations is the foundation of substituting imports
- 4.4 Credit of clients to home-made machine tools gets improved

5 Prospect of China machine tool industry

- 5.1 Domestic strong demands drive machine tool consumption increasing steadily
 - 5.1.1 Downstream industries level off
 - 5.1.2 Equipments are upgraded frequently and demands for CNC machine tools leap
- 5.2 Revenue grows faster than consumption and substituting imports is the key
- 5.3 Recombination and M & A make competitive enterprises

6 Analysis of listed companies

- 6.1 Listed companies
- 6.2 Key listed companies

Tables/Figures

Relativity between production value of machine tool industry and GDP worldwide
Variation of growth trend of machine tool output value of main countries
Machine tool consumption in key machine tool consumer countries and growth, 2006
Main exporting indicators of China's machine tool industry
Machine tool flow
Import and export of machine tools in China
Production value of machine tool by country worldwide, 2001-2006
M & A and integration cases of machine tool industry since 1990s
Major operating indicators of metal-cutting machine tool industry in China
Evolution of global leading machine tool powers
Industrial development road of major economy
Development process of heavy chemical industry in the major countries
Schedule of transfer of global industry and manufacturing centers
Technology comparison between 2000 and 2006
Demands of downstream industries for machine tool products
Components of CNC machine tool
Products and technologies of listed companies of machine tool industry
Operating indicators of listed companies of machine tool industry, 2006
Operating indicators of listed companies of machine tool industry, Q1 2007
Profitability forecast and investment suggestions for key listed companies
