Abstracts

YJ is a UK based organization that operates in the sector of oil and gas. The prime activity of company is exploring the oil and gas reserves and then producing oil and gas through licensing procedure in a responsible manner and by ensuring the levels of safety. The company started its operations in 2007 and made efforts for putting in operations four fields of oil out of which at one location the production could not be started. Because that field was found to be non-economic due to small size and the expenditures in that area for testing and examining were written off eventually.(continued...)wordcount of report:1500 words
