Abstracts

The essay will shed light on what impact media is having on our society. Media plays an important role in promoting culture, traditions and viewpoints that are ultimately adopted by the people who are the audience of media. For example the dramas and movies portray high society culture or put more emphasis on western culture. These results in people having adopted western traditions and try to attain higher life style as they think it will be a status symbol; children and youth are becoming more demanding. Cont...
