Abstracts

Al-Andalus are also referring as the Muslims or the Spain or the Islamic Iberia that was a medieval Muslim's region and cultural domain consisting on the Spain and Portugal. Muslims along with the Christians and Jews lived together for more than seven centuries in the same territory and got name Moorish Spain or the Al Andalus in the Europe. The time period of the Al Andalus started with the greatest victory of the Tariq bin Ziyad in the time period of the Umayyad who ends the rule of the Umayyad caliphates. The presence and rule of the Andalus as in the Europe influenced the region in many ways as cultural changes, religious changes, social changes etc. The extent to that the Christians and the Jews were tolerated from the Muslim rulers who came from the Arab is conflicted by the various historians of the world. The history shows that the Andalus shows that Muslims, Jews and Christians lived in the Al Andalus Empire in peaceful manners with the exception of the some battles and revolts and few religious conflicts in the European zone. The major influence of the Andalus on the Europe is the cultural influence as the higher amount of the social and cultural association took place among these different social and religious groups in the Europe that results in the formation of distinctive and different cultural amalgamation that continued to grow even after the Reconquista and the cultural influence of the Andalus still can be witness in the Europe (Maryam Noor, 2015).
