Introduction:

Multiculturalism is usually described as the preferment, acceptance and presence of different traditions of different cultures in a dominion, which is commonly known as a culture that is linked to the ethnic group.

Multiculturalism tends to exist when a dominion is formed or extended by the integration of different cultures that may be two or more.

The examples of multiculturalism are Canada, which is segregated as French and English.

The immigrants that are from different cultures in the world might form the dominion.

Many countries are the example of multiculturalism like Mexico, United Kingdom, Australia and United states, Continued....
