Abstracts

Nowadays, the use of internet is increasing rapidly. Internet is basically a connection that joins several computers in the whole world. The conversation among the computers becomes easy due to availability of network address. Internet is used for several purposes without any difficulty. The use of internet is increasing in every field of life including education, medical, science, and research etc. Several parents think that it is not necessary to check their kids' internet use at all. However, it is not considered good at all (Aftab, 2000). There are several legal and lawful risks associated with use of internet. The main risks associated with internet are robbery, issues, hurts, stings and viruses related to computers. So, it is top priority of parents to monitor their kid's internet use. Cont...
