Abstracts

Moxifloxacin is a fourth-generation synthetic quinolone antibacterial drug (8-methoxy-fluoroquinolone antibiotic) developed by Bayer Vital GmbH. It was approved for marketing by the FDA in December 1999. Moxifloxacin can be used to treat several infections, including respiratory infections, cellulitis, anthracnose, endocarditis, intra-abdominal infections, meningitis and tuberculosis. In 2002, Moxifloxacin tablets (400mg) were launched in China. In 2004, Moxifloxacin injection was launched for the treatment of adults suffering from upper and lower respiratory tract infections. In the first half of 2021, in addition to Bayer Vital GmbH, there are several manufacturer in the Moxifloxacin market in China, such as Nanjing Youke Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd., Chengdu Tiantaishan Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd., Chengdu Zhengkang Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd. and Jiangsu Zhengda Fenghai Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd.

CRI's survey data shows that the sales value of Moxifloxacin has grown steadily from 2016 to 2019 in China. In 2020, the sales value of Moxifloxacin fell by 41.23% in China, from CNY1.882 billion in 2019 to CNY1.106 billion in 2020. Due to the second batch of state-organized centralized procurement of medicines, and manufacturers of Moxifloxacin compete by reducing prices. Moxifloxacin of Bayer Vital GmbH dropped by 77.70%, and Moxifloxacin of Nanjing Youke Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd. dropped by 53.07%. The CAGR of the sales value of Moxifloxacin in 2016-2020 is -3.76% in China.

CRI predicts that with the effective relief of the COVID-19 epidemic, the sales of Moxifloxacin in the Chinese market will have a recovery growth in 2021-2025. In addition, there are 19 pharmaceutical companies that have entered the Chinese Moxifloxacin market by 2020. It is expected that the price of Moxifloxacin will decline with the addition of new manufacturers, and there is room for growth in sales volume and sales. At the same time, compared with similar drugs, Moxifloxacin has a broad antibacterial spectrum, strong curative effect and other advantages, so the sales volume of Moxifloxacin in China will maintain a growth trend.
