Abstracts

According to CRI statistics, approximately 300 Vietnamese suppliers exported durians in 2024, totaling US$2.921 billion. According to CRI analysis, China was the largest export destinations of Vietnam's durians in 2024, accounting for approximately 73% of the total export value. From January to July 2025, the cumulated export value reached US$1.234 billion. CRI predicts that with the continuous improvement of Vietnamese durian quality and the development of frozen processed products, the export value of Vietnamese durian will be expected to continue to grow in the next few years.

To meet the growing demand for Vietnamese durian from global fruit buyers, food processors, traders, and cross-border supply chain management companies, CRI launches the 2023-2025 Vietnam Durians Exporters Business Directory. This directory covers hundreds of Vietnamese durians exporters from 2023 to 2025, including fruit wholesalers, fruit exporters, professional traders and cold chain logistics companies. The content includes important information such as company name, address, contact information, annual export value, etc. It supports EXCEL format, which is convenient for screening, classification and batch contact at any time.

The publication of the 2023-2025 Vietnam Durians Exporters Business Directory aims to build an efficient collaboration bridge between global buyers and trading companies, centrally presenting authoritative and detailed exporter information to help buyers quickly find reliable supply partners.

By providing core data such as company size and contact information, the directory not only reduces the cost of market entry and information search, but also provides strong support for companies to expand diversified cooperation channels, diversify procurement risks, and formulate market strategies. This directory will help purchasing companies better seize opportunities in the Vietnamese durian market, enabling resource sharing and win-win cooperation.

CRI has offices in Shanghai, China and Hanoi, Vietnam. We have been deeply involved in the Vietnamese market for many years and focuses on providing market research, project site selection, enterprise docking and supply chain integration services to companies planning to enter the Southeast Asian market.
