Abstracts

The study will be available in electronic form, after an order is received, within 6 days.

The recession has significantly affected the market of Real Estate Consultants as a whole, which is characterized by the following factors:

reduced demand, price setback and renegotiation of leases, postponement of investment decisions (e.g. purchase or development of new spaces), and the crisis in the construction sector.

This study was compiled by STOCHASIS Management Consultancy S.A. and aims to reflect the current state of the market of Real Estate Consultants in Greece and to examine its prospects, while presenting information on the european market.

More specifically, the first five chapters of the study feature information on the market of Real Estate Consultants, which refer to general characteristics, the institutional framework, the demand, the offer and the size of the industry. In the sixth chapter of the study we will present information on the european market. Finally, we will present the conclusions and the prospects of the market, as well as an annex with selected financial indicators of major enterprises in 2010-2012.
