Abstracts

Polyurethane (PU) is a polymer composed of organic units joined by carbamate (urethane) links. Polyurethane foam is a solid or open cellular structured form of polyurethane. Polyurethane foam is made using small amounts of blowing agents to give less dense foam, better cushioning/energy absorption or thermal insulation. Polyurethane foam is mostly available in flexible or rigid form. The global polyurethane foam market in terms of revenue is set to grow by US$ 13 billion during 2021-2027, growing at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 6.3% during the forecast period, according to data and analytics company StrategyHelix. Rising demand in the building and construction and electronics industry, rapid growth in healthcare infrastructure, growing home furnishing industry are expected to boost the market growth in the coming years.

The report provides up-to-date market size data for period 2017-2020 and forecast to 2027 covering key market aspects like sales value for polyurethane foam. The global polyurethane foam market is segmented on the basis of product, application, region. By product, it is categorized into rigid foam, flexible foam, and spray foam. The flexible foam segment held the largest market share in 2020. However, the spray foam segment is expected to witness the highest CAGR during the forecast period. By application, the polyurethane foam market is divided into healthcare, automotive & transportation, bedding & furniture, packaging, consumer goods, electronics, footwear, and others. The healthcare segment accounted for the largest market share in 2020. Based on region, the polyurethane foam market is divided into North America, Asia Pacific, Europe, and Rest of the World (ROW).

The report has profiled some of the key players of the market such as BASF SE, Covestro AG, Huntsman Corporation, INOAC Corporation, Lanxess AG, Mitsui Chemicals Inc., The Dow Chemical Company, Tosoh Corporation, Wanhua Chemical Group Co. Ltd..

Report Scope

Product: rigid foam, flexible foam, and spray foam

Application: healthcare, automotive & transportation, bedding & furniture, packaging, consumer goods, electronics, footwear, and others

Region: North America, Asia Pacific, Europe, and Rest of the World (ROW)

Years Considered: this report covers the period 2017 to 2027
