Abstracts

According to Statistics MRC, the Global Functional Proteins Market is accounted for $4.60 billion in 2020 and is expected to reach $8.39 billion by 2028 growing at a CAGR of 7.8% during the forecast period. While the factors like growing instances of chronic diseases and rising health awareness among consumers are propelling the market growth. However, the high cost of plant-based functional proteins is hampering the market growth.

Functional proteins are biochemical compounds including polypeptides that carry out biological activities. These proteins have several benefits such as improve mitigate the effect of pathogens and decrease recovery time after intestinal disorder.

Based on the type, the casein/caseinates segment is estimated to have a lucrative growth during the forecast period. Casein is a source of various functional peptides comprising various properties such as water binding, heat stability, foaming, and emulsification.

By geography, North America is going to have a lucrative growth during the forecast period due to the high occurrence of chronic diseases in countries such as the US. Whey protein concentrates are acquiring traction as customers are shifting to dairy proteins to complete their nutritional requirements.

What our report offers:

Market share assessments for the regional and country-level segments

Strategic recommendations for the new entrants

Covers Market data for the years 2019, 2020, 2021, 2025, and 2028

Market Trends (Drivers, Constraints, Opportunities, Threats, Challenges, Investment Opportunities, and recommendations)

Strategic recommendations in key business segments based on the market estimations

Competitive landscaping mapping the key common trends

Company profiling with detailed strategies, financials, and recent developments

Supply chain trends mapping the latest technological advancements

Free Customization Offerings:

All the customers of this report will be entitled to receive one of the following free customization options:

Company Profiling

Comprehensive profiling of additional market players (up to 3)

SWOT Analysis of key players (up to 3)

Regional Segmentation

Market estimations, Forecasts and CAGR of any prominent country as per the client's interest (Note: Depends on feasibility check)

Competitive Benchmarking

Benchmarking of key players based on product portfolio, geographical presence, and strategic alliances
