Abstracts

According to Statistics MRC, the Global Slider Bags Market is accounted for $XX million in 2016 and is expected to reach $XX million by 2022 growing at a CAGR of XX% from 2016 to 2022. The key drivers impacting the demand for the market include low cost and high availability of slider bags, proclivity of the customers for a continuous form of packaging, increasing number of applications for storing materials and necessitate protection of food and other materials from moisture support. However, entry of biodegradable material in packaging sector and stringent regulations due to plastic waste are some of the restraints hindering the market growth. Moreover, new and modern designs of slider bags will offer a significant growth opportunity for the market.

North America is expected to witness a significant growth due to changing consumer proclivity for the conservation of food products. Asia Pacific region is anticipated to register rapid growth due to increasing demand for slider bags in various sectors.

Some of the key players in the market include Presto Products Company, SVP Packing Industry Pvt, Flexico, Inc., PKG Group LLC, International Plastics Inc, Reynolds Consumer Products LLC, Bison Bag Co Inc, C-P Flexible Packaging, Pacific Bag, Inc. and Minigrip.
