Abstracts

Global lingerie market is projected to grow from around $ 93 billion in 2017 to more than $ 125 billion by 2024, on the back of rising population of financially independent women, growing per capita income levels, coupled with rapid urbanization and expansion of sales channels. Some of the other key factors that are expected to drive the market include rising demand for branded lingerie wear, innovative offerings to target customers, changing preferences of young generation, and aggressive marketing & promotional strategies by the leading lingerie players. Moreover, growing organized retail and e-commerce sector would provide lucrative growth opportunities to market players during the forecast period.

Years considered for this report:

TechSci Research performed both primary as well as exhaustive secondary research for this study. Initially, TechSci Research sourced a list of leading manufacturers of lingerie across the globe. Subsequently, TechSci Research conducted primary research surveys with the identified companies. While interviewing, the company personnel were also enquired about their key products, prices of products and competitors. Through this technique, TechSci Research was able to include the manufacturers which could not be identified due to the limitations of secondary research. TechSci Research analyzed the product type, category, distribution channel and regional presence of all major lingerie companies across the globe.

TechSci Research calculated global lingerie market size using a bottom-up approach, where manufacturers' value shares data for product types (bra, knickers & panties, lounge wear, shape wear and others) was recorded and forecast for the future years. TechSci Research sourced these values from industry experts and company representatives and externally validated through analyzing historical sales data of respective manufacturers to arrive at the overall market size. Various secondary sources such as directories and databases such as company annual reports, industry magazines, industry reports, news dailies, credible paid databases and proprietary database were also studied by TechSci Research.

Key Target Audience:

Lingerie manufacturers/importers, suppliers, distributors and other stakeholders

Organizations, forums and alliances related to lingerie market
