Abstracts

India mosquito repellent market stood at $ 670 million in 2018 and is projected to grow to nearly $ 900 million by 2024. Anticipated growth in the market can be attributed to rising cases of vector borne diseases in rural as well as urban areas. Majority of the sales of mosquito repellents takes place in urban areas, however, rising initiatives by government as well as product manufacturers towards spreading awareness about mosquito repellent products in rural areas is expected to increase demand for these products in rural areas over the next five years. Additionally, increasing penetration of modern mosquito repellent products such as vaporizers, sprays, creams, repellent fabrics, etc., is further anticipated to fuel growth in the market during forecast period.

Years considered for this report:
