Abstracts

Mexico EVA demand stood at 55.81 Thousand Tonnes in 2020 and is forecast to reach 80.63 Thousand Tonnes by 2030, growing at a healthy CAGR of 3.50% until 2030. The growth attributes to the growing food & beverage industry. With the rising population, the demand for packaged goods in the food and beverage industry and greenhouse covers in the agriculture industry may increase and drive the market growth. Also, the demand for high vinyl acetate content in EVA films has increased due to the increased durability and heat resistance of the product. With the thriving packaging and agriculture business coupled with the growing footwear industry, the demand for Ethylene Vinyl Acetate (EVA) is anticipated to increase and achieve a new milestone. The outbreak of COVID-19 in 2020 disrupted the economy. The market growth was affected drastically, and production units shut down. Furthermore, the major market players intentionally halted the production keeping their employees' health and wellness in mind. With imposed new regulations of the COVID-19 and proper precautions, the market is anticipated to regain its growth in the years to come. Once the market regains the full function of its production unit, the market is bound to show robust growth in the forecast period. Potential investment in the market is expecting steady growth in the market in the forecast period, until 2030.
