Abstracts

Turkey water pump market is anticipated to register growth with an impressive CAGR in the forecast period, 2023-2027. The market growth can be attributed to the increasing investments in the production and exploration activities in the oil & gas industry in the country. Furthermore, the rapid upgradation of infrastructure which includes replacing or installing new pipelines will also provide a boost to the market. Besides this, the rising urbanization and industrialization are augmenting the demand for water pumps over the projected period. The product demand will further continue to increase considerably as several countries including Turkey are developing flood control systems in the areas that are more prone to flood. Furthermore, the bolstering demand for clean water from the residential as well as the industrial sector is augmenting the use of water & wastewater treatment plants, which eventually is driving the demand for water pumps demand.

Moreover, the proliferating agriculture sector in the nation is increasingly demanding energy-efficient water pumps which are expected to provide lucrative opportunities to several market players in the Turkey water pump market.

A water pump refers to a machine that utilizes pumping or evaporation to move water throughout the pipe incorporated in construction sites, mine shafts, underground metro networks, tunnels, riverbeds, and residential areas. They are also utilized for farming and manufacturing purposes.

Government initiative facilitates the market growth

The high demand for water and wastewater treatment plants in the country is bolstering the need for cost-efficient water pumps. Policymakers have introduced stringent wastewater management policies, especially for the urban and industrial sectors. In addition to this Turkey is in dire need to save on energy, which is why the government is further emphasizing on the utilization of water pumps that functions via renewable sources and solar energy. The utmost need to save energy is further adding to the demand for energy-efficient in Turkey. As a result, the Turkey water pump market is expected to grow exponentially in the upcoming five years.

Technological advancements and increasing investment facilitate the market growth

The growing advancements in water pump technology along with the introduction of new hi-tech products focusing on energy and cost efficiency are facilitating the growth of Turkey water pump market. The upgradation and technological advancements have improved the speed of basic process tasks, increased the reliability of the pumps, and reduced the monotonous task of everyday operating processes. Turkey holds a distinctive geographic position as it is located between Europe and Asia, so it gains significance in terms of huge investments from cross-border investors.

Market Segmentation

The Turkey water pump market is segmented by solution, by end-use, by company type, competitiveness landscape, and regional distribution. Based on solution, the market is differentiated between centrifugal pump, reciprocating pump, and rotary pump. By end-users, the market is segmented into oil and gas and refining, chemical, power generation, water and wastewater, and others. The market analysis also studies the regional segmentation to devise regional market segmentation, divided among marmara region, central anatolia, aegean region, mediterranean region, black sea region, south-eastern anatolia region, and eastern anatolia region.

Company Profile

Sumak Pump, Xylem Turkey, Masdaf, Vikas Pump, Kurlar Dalgic Pompa, Wilo, Vansan Water Technologies, among others is a partial list of major market players of the companies responsible for the growth of Turkey water pumpmarket.

Report Scope:

In this report, Turkey water pump market has been segmented into following categories, in addition to the industry trends which have also been detailed below:

Turkey Water Pump Market, By Solution:

Centrifugal Pump

Reciprocating Pump

Rotary Pump

Turkey Water Pump Market, By End Use:

Oil and Gas and Refining

Chemical

Power Generation

Water and Wastewater

Others

Turkey Water Pump Market, By Region:

Marmara Region

Central Anatolia

Aegean Region

Mediterranean Region

Black Sea Region

South-Eastern Anatolia Region

Eastern Anatolia Region

Competitive Landscape
