Abstracts

United States environmental testing market was valued USD 2411.75 Million in 2019 and is forecast to grow at CAGR of 7.06% in next five years to reach USD 3209.60 Million by 2025. Anticipated growth in the market can be attributed to rising incidences of airborne diseases, growing industrialization, growing urbanization, and stringent government regulation pertaining to protection of environment, among others.

Growing investments by the government in advanced testing equipment or services to maintain hygiene and environmental conditions are the factors driving the US environmental testing market. Government initiatives towards the protection of the environment, stringent government regulation imposed over the pollution maintenance and active participation to monitor the change in the environmental conditions are going to drive the US environmental testing market in the coming years.

United States environmental testing market is segmented based on sample, technology, contaminant, and regional distribution. Based on sample, the market can be fragmented into soil, water, air and wastewater/effluent. Wastewater/effluent held the dominant share in the market in 2019. This can be accredited to the stringent government regulated to discharge of effluent or wastewater in water bodies.

The major players operating in the environmental testing market are Eurofins Scientific

Inc., SGS S.A., TUV SUD AG, Bureau Veritas SA, Intertek Group plc, ALS Limited, Microbac Laboratories, Inc., Merieux Nutrisciences Corp, EMSL Analytical, Inc., Hydrologic Associates USA, Inc., and others.
