Growing Utilization of False Hair Products in Entertainment and Fashion Industry Fuels the Asia Pacific False Hair Products Market

The demand for false hair products in the entertainment and fashion industry is anticipated to grow significantly due to the increasing preference for hair extension, hair wigs, and hair pieces among models and celebrities. The industry is anticipated to grow owing to the surge in the incidence of hair fall among women and men. Also, in terms of revenue, false hair products are highly adopted in the entertainment and fashion industry owing to rising incidence of alopecia.

The fashion and entertainment industry has become vital for the sale and adoption of false hair products. Production and fashion houses stock numerous hair extension, hair wigs, and hair pieces for models and actors since they perform distinguished roles and characters. The upsurge in hair ailments among consumers is also assisting the industry to grow at a uniform pace. The number of individuals suffering from hair fall is increasing rapidly, owing to which several people are choosing false hair products. Thus, such factors are creating lucrative opportunities for the growth of the Asia Pacific false hair products market.

Asia Pacific False Hair Products Market Overview

The Asia Pacific false hair products market is segmented into China, India, Japan, South Korea, and Australia. An increasing number of people facing hair loss in India, China, and Japan due to stress, auto-immune diseases (Alopecia), pollution, fungal infections, cancer, hormonal imbalance, and Polycystic Ovary Syndrome (POS) is propelling the demand for false hair products as a solution for an appearance enhancement. Advancements in wig and extension manufacturing techniques and materials have resulted in better quality, realistic-looking wigs, attracting consumers to opt for them. Evergreen Products Group Ltd, Henan Ruimei Products Co Ltd, Arnature Co Ltd, and Lordhair Co Ltd are among the key manufacturers that dominate the Asia Pacific false hair products market. Further, these leading manufacturers in the region are continuously looking forward to expanding their presence in the market.

Asia Pacific is expected to become one of the prominent markets for false hair products. South Asian countries are the world's largest exporters of human hair. The rising demand for false hair products in the region has attracted manufacturers to establish their presence in the region, further driving the Asia Pacific false hair products market growth. Rising population and cultural traditions are also fueling the growth of the market. Asia Pacific is also witnessing a significant rise in the beauty & fashion industry, driving the demand for false hair products as a trendy accessory for various hairstyle preferences.
