Abstracts

The Europe investor ESG software market is expected to grow from US$ 270.96 million in 2023 to US$ 853.01 million by 2030. It is estimated to grow at a CAGR of 17.8% from 2023 to 2030.

Rising Adoption of Investor ESG Software Worldwide Fuel Europe Investor ESG Software Market

The UK has the third largest number of annual sustainable investment searches - 111,120 on average. As compared to the UK's population of 66,650,000, Brits conduct 1,667 online searches per million people per year for sustainable investments (138 per month). As the adoption of investor software is increasing, many companies are launching new ESG software. For instance, in Sep 2023, J.P. Morgan announced the launch of ESG Discovery, which is a new digital platform designed to provide investors a central source for ESG views from the firm's sector and ESG analysts and enabled assessments of current and forward-looking company and sector material ESG risks, opportunities and impacts. Thus, the above-mentioned data indicates the rising preference for sustainable investment across these countries, which is further impacting the adoption of investor ESG software for a thorough analysis of ESG initiatives by the companies.

Europe Investor ESG Software Market Overview

The European Europe Investor ESG Software Market is further segmented into France, Germany, Russia, Italy, the UK, and the Rest of Europe. Europe is a diverse market with a group of more than 40 countries in it. Considering Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) opportunities and risks as individuals, corporations, and governments address the issue of global sustainability not only drives the development of better companies, but also helps investors to safeguard long-term success and value. Responsible investing has become a crucial problem for private equity fund managers and their investors in this climate. ESG factors play a significant role in their initial investment decisions as well as the subsequent growth of companies. Invest Europe, the pan-European organization for the private equity industry, has done a lot to raise awareness and encourage the convergence of responsible investment and ESG issues among its members.
