Escalating Sales of Frozen Snacks via E-Commerce Platforms Drive North America Frozen Sweet Potato Hash Brown and Tater Shots Market

The emergence of e-commerce has resulted in considerable changes in the way people shop and purchase food products. The growing penetration of smartphones and the internet, quick access to emerging technologies, rising purchasing power, and convenience provided by online retail shopping platforms are among the key factors bolstering e-commerce. According to the US Department of Commerce Retail Indicator Division, e-commerce sales in the US reached US$ 870 billion in 2021, up by 14.2% from 2020. Furthermore, online sales for groceries grew by 170% in 2021 compared to the previous year, accounting for 9.6% of total grocery sales in the US.

People increasingly prefer online retail platforms for purchasing frozen foods. According to American Frozen Food Institute, online sales of frozen food products, including frozen snacks, increased by 75% in 2020. The online sales of food and beverages grew significantly during the COVID-19 outbreak due to the shutdown of brick-and-mortar stores and the imposition of several social restrictions by governments of various countries across the globe. With the rising penetration of e-commerce across multiple geographies, the manufacturers of frozen foods such as Conagra Brands Inc are also enhancing their online presence by selling products through Amazon, Tesco, Walmart, and other well-known e-commerce platforms. The growing adoption of e-commerce platforms is eliminating the dependency on offline retail stores. Thus, the rising sales of frozen snacks via e-commerce platforms are contributing to the growth of the North America frozen sweet potato hash brown and tater shots market.
