Abstracts

ValueNotes Brandmeter is a quick-access tool providing insights on how customers and trade partners perceive various industrial compressor brands in India.

An unbiased and independent report based on 300+ interviews with end-users and trade participants

Companies are ranked by customers and the trade across parameters such as product quality, energy efficiency, after-sales service, quality of air output, compressor life, product availability, brand image, value for money, design & customization, and product warranty

Product- and brand-wise buying preferences across regions and end-user industries in India

End-user industries include automobile, cement, chemical, food and beverages, pharmaceuticals, power, steel, textiles

This report highlights the top-15 brands recalled by end-users of compressors of all types, and the perception of each brand on key purchasing criteria.
