Abstracts

Global Natural Food and Beverage Preservatives Market Size is valued at $989.4 Million in 2024 and is forecast to register a growth rate (CAGR) of 4.1% to reach $1364.5 Million by 2032.

The natural food and beverage preservatives market is witnessing growth as consumers increasingly demand clean-label and preservative-free products. Natural preservatives derived from plant-based sources, such as rosemary extract and vinegar, are gaining popularity as alternatives to synthetic preservatives. The trend towards healthy eating and sustainable sourcing is influencing market dynamics, prompting manufacturers to explore innovative solutions for extending shelf life without compromising product quality. Additionally, the rising awareness of food safety and the impact of preservatives on health are driving the adoption of natural preservatives, creating opportunities for brands to cater to health-conscious consumers.
