EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The nuts and seeds market in Turkey was equal to 577.00 million USD (calculated in retail prices) in 2014. Until 2024, the nuts and seeds market in Turkey is forecast to reach 1.41 billion USD (in retail prices), thus increasing at a CAGR of 6.60% per annum for the period 2019-2024. This is a decrease, compared to the growth of about 12.74% per year, registered in 2014-2018.

The average consumption per capita in value terms reached 7.49 USD per capita (in retail prices) in 2014. In the next five years, it grew at a CAGR of 11.02% per annum.

In the medium term (by 2024), the indicator is forecast to slow down its growth and increase at a CAGR of 5.82% per annum.

As an overall, the market for most snack foods is projected to continue its positive trend. Some of the most important factors, driving the snack foods industry in the next few years are expected to be convenience and portability, health and safety, as well as category innovation. Tortilla chips, pretzels, expanded snacks, as well as nuts and seeds, are becoming more suitable for the new and improved lifestyles of today's consumers. The increasing interest in healthier diets is also projected to offer opportunities in the segment of special foods that are differentiated through health, functional, organic or indulgent aspects.

When it comes to nuts and seeds, the increasing consumer awareness of nuts as a rich source of nutrients – protein, heart-healthy fats, vitamins, minerals and fiber is anticipated to propel the growth of the industry in the next few years. Nowadays, people understand the difference between healthy fats and unhealthy fats, due to which they are anticipated to appreciate nuts and seeds even more. Furthermore, their crunchy texture and creamy taste are also likely to contribute for the growing consumption. Consumers are expected to continue opting for peanut, almond and hazelnut, which are among the leading categories. At the same time, however, sales of cashew, macadamia nut, walnut are also projected to increase in the medium term.
